To know what is right and not do it is the worst cowardice – Confucius

Head's Lines

I hope you had a restful bank holiday weekend, possibly catching some of the coverage of the eightieth anniversary of the end of the Second World War in Europe. I found the flypast in London especially moving. We have also been thinking about the wartime generation at school, those who gave so much that we might live in freedom today.

On Thursday, Mrs Whitaker accompanied a group of children participating in boccia, a paralympic sport introduced in 1984. It is usually played indoors, and athletes throw, kick or use a ramp to propel a ball onto the badminton-size court with the aim of getting closest to a jack.

I have just returned from hosting my golden ticket party. It was simply delightful to meet with the four lucky recipients and their friends, celebrating their exemplary achievements in the half term before Easter.

Parents' evenings are fast approaching. If you have not done so already, please book a slot to discuss your child's progress since receiving their annual report at the end of last term.

Dr James Inglis
Headteacher

This half term,
our value in focus is
service.

Be joyful in hope, patient in affliction, faithful in prayer. Romans 12:12

There is a prayer box near the signing-in point for parents – a group share requests confidentially. Our Reflection Champions maintain a prayer tree for pupils. They have written this prayer for us this week:

Dear God,

Thank you for the nice weather. Please let the old pope live in peace in heaven and the new one be kind and honest. Please help the stress of SATs dial down a bit so that everyone can do their best. Let everybody show service this term

Amen

The headteacher has chosen this scripture for us this week:

Now, however, I am on my way to Jerusalem in the service of the Lord's people there. Romans 15:25

Loving for today,
Learning for tomorrow,
Forever in faith
