He who knows only his own side of the case knows little of that – John Stuart Mill

Head's Lines

More groups of children in Oak have been competing in sports this week. Mrs Georgiou supervised a team in netball on Monday, and it was the turn of some footballers yesterday with Miss Barker – well done to both them and those who participated in football last week.

With just a week now before the end of term, we have also been in the swing of preparing for Easter. On Wednesday, the children hunted for eggs, and we gathered in church yesterday to celebrate the resurrection of Jesus. The band and choir performed beautifully – thank you, Hannah.

I am sorry to inform you Mrs Cole has fallen extremely unwell. While she is expected to make a full recovery, it is now unlikely Mrs Cole will return to work this year. To minimise disruption, I have appointed Mrs Swamy, who previously covered for Mrs Cole, and Miss Churchward, who has completed her training with us, to lead the team in Apples & Pears on Monday, Tuesday, Thursday and Friday. Mrs Burton will, of course, continue to teach the children on Wednesday. Please do not hesitate to approach me if you have any questions.

This half term,
our value in focus is justice.

Be joyful in hope, patient in affliction, faithful in prayer. Romans 12:12

There is a prayer box near the signing-in point for parents – a group share requests confidentially. Our Reflection Champions maintain a prayer tree for pupils. They have written this prayer for us this week:

Dear God,

Thank you for loving us. We apologise that we have not loved all those we should. Please forgive us and help us to be better people.

Amen

The headteacher has chosen this scripture for us this week:

But about the Son he says, 'Your throne, O God, will last for ever and ever; a sceptre of justice will be the sceptre of your kingdom. You have loved righteousness and hated wickedness; therefore God, your God, has set you above your companions by anointing you with the oil of joy.'
Hebrews 1:8-9

Loving for today,
Learning for tomorrow,
Forever in faith

Invitations and Presents

Invitations to parties and presents for classmates, e.g. birthday sweets or home baking, cannot be accepted by staff for distribution in school.

Managing Medicines

We can only administer non-prescription medicines when they have been recommended by a professional, e.g. GP, and written consent has been provided beforehand.

Playgroup

We now have a playgroup for children who have not started school yet every Thursday from 9 to 10. Parents and carers are welcome to drop in with their littlest ones and join the fun.
