A great man is always willing to be little – Ralph Waldo Emerson

Head's Lines

As you know, we received an inspection this week. While I cannot share the outcome with you until the report is published, I can say I am very pleased.

I would like to thank so many of you for responding to the questionnaire. I am particularly grateful the efforts to improve the school in the last few years have been widely appreciated.

The team performed magnificently on Tuesday; however, that is what I see every day. The children had some well-deserved downtime on Wednesday before resuming our routines yesterday.

Midweek, Miss Barker and Mrs Fernandes accompanied a small group of children to Every1In, an inclusive sporting event. They particularly enjoyed the dancing.

This afternoon, the four recipients of golden tickets, awarded every half term for exemplary effort, and their friends joined me for a party in the library. It never ceases to amaze me how much cake and juice the children can devour in such a short space of time.

Dr James Inglis
Headteacher

This half term,
our value in focus is trust.

Be joyful in hope, patient in affliction, faithful in prayer. Romans 12:12

There is a prayer box near the signing-in point for parents – a group share requests confidentially. Our Reflection Champions maintain a prayer tree for pupils. They have written this prayer for us this week:

Dear God,

Please help Christmas come quick, so we can celebrate. Please let people trust each other. Thank you for the teachers that work in school to teach children every day.

Amen

The headteacher has chosen this scripture for us this week:

Paul and Barnabas appointed elders for them in each church and, with prayer and fasting, committed them to the Lord, in whom they had put their trust. Acts 14:23

Loving for today,
Learning for tomorrow,
Forever in faith
