Don't be afraid to give your best to what seemingly are small jobs. Every time you conquer one it makes you that much stronger. If you do little jobs well, the big ones will tend to take care of themselves – Dale Carnegie

Head's Lines

I would like to thank the PTA for organising the disco last Friday. Pupils of all ages have told me how much they enjoyed the occasion, and it was great to see them socialising confidently outside school.

On Wednesday, some of the older children participated in cross-country running. They represented the school with their customary aplomb – well done.

Before they left, the whole school gathered for The N Factor when our Reflection Champions presented certificates and trophies to the runners-up and winners – shining examples of our value in focus as nominated by their classmates.

Golden tickets, awarded for exceptional effort these past eight weeks, have been posted, and I look forward to seeing the recipients at my party in November.

It has been a very long half term, and the summer holiday is now a distant memory. I hope all our families have a well-deserved rest next week before the children return refreshed for the dash to Christmas – there are just 60 days to go.

This half term,
our value in focus is thankfulness.

Be joyful in hope, patient in affliction, faithful in prayer. Romans 12:12

There is a prayer box near the signing-in point for parents – a group share requests confidentially. Our Reflection Champions maintain a prayer tree for pupils. They have written this prayer for us this week:

Dear God,

Please help us not to undermine our trust in one another as it will not help to strengthen our friendships. Let us be grateful for the harvest.

Amen

The headteacher has chosen this scripture for us this week:

First, I thank my God through Jesus Christ for all of you, because your faith is being reported all over the world. Romans 1:8

Loving for today,
Learning for tomorrow,
Forever in faith

Governance Information

Diversity is important, and we want the governing board to be increasingly reflective of the community we serve.

School Uniform

We have a uniform as it can play a key role in: promoting the ethos of a school, providing a sense of belonging and identity, and setting an appropriate tone for education. Branded uniform is available from both Smarty Schoolwear and Smiths Schoolwear. Non-branded uniform is acceptable. The PTA maintain a large second-hand stock, which is available for viewing at events, including parents' evenings.

Dr Inglis' Brain Training

This has cities without people, beaches without sand, oceans with no water, and mountains with no peaks. What is it?
