Leadership is about empathy – Oprah Winfrey

Head's Lines

Pupils will have brought home their annual reports last Friday. It has been a genuine pleasure to read and comment on all 100 of them, and I am sure you will be very proud of the progress your child is making. Please complete the comment slip and return it to their teacher if you have not done so already.

The children have been enjoying playing on the field again this week now that spring seems to have finally arrived. Hopefully, it can remain open until the autumn.

On Wednesday, every child had an opportunity to hunt for Easter eggs hidden in the hall, and we gathered yesterday at church to celebrate Jesus rising from the dead, three days after he was executed. For Christians, Easter eggs are used as a symbol for the resurrection of Jesus. Christians believe that, through his resurrection, Jesus overcame death and sin. This offers people the promise of eternal life if they follow his teachings. Nowadays, most Easter eggs are made from chocolate and covered in coloured foil. Traditionally though, chicken eggs would be hard boiled and then decorated by hand.

This half term, our value in focus is forgiveness.

Be joyful in hope, patient in affliction, faithful in prayer. Romans 12:12

There is a prayer box near the signing-in point for parents – a group share requests confidentially. Our Reflection Champions maintain a prayer tree for pupils. They have written this prayer for us this week:

Dear God,

Please help us to remember you took away our sins.

Amen

The headteacher has chosen this scripture for us this week:

I am writing to you, dear children, because your sins have been forgiven on account of his name. 1 John 2:12

Loving for today,
Learning for tomorrow,
Forever in faith

Attendance Matters

Please contact the school when your child is absent to explain the reason. Lateness patterns and unauthorised absences trigger a communication from the headteacher. Failure to improve or non-engagement with the school in offering support can lead to involving the Local Authority Attendance Officer and even legal sanctions. You can be fined for taking your child on holiday during term time without the school's permission.

Invitations and Presents

Invitations to parties and presents for classmates, e.g. birthday sweets or home baking, cannot be accepted by staff for distribution in school.
